National Commander of DAV To Attend Conference in Grayling

Kenneth G. Musselmann, National Commander of the one-million-member Disabled American Veterans (DAV), will be in Grayling, September 19, 1986, to attend the 24th Annual DAV Fall Service Officer Conference.

Musselmann, who lost both legs in combat during the Vietnam War, was elected as National Commander of the DAV at the organization's national convention in Reno, Nev., in the summer of 1986. During the previous four years he served the organization in National Vice Commander posts.

Musselmann was also the DAV's National Chief of Staff during 1981-82. He has held all elected officer positions in the DAV's Dept. of California, including Department Commander. He has also served as the commander of DAV Chapter 19 in Lakewood, Calif., of which he is a life member.

Musselmann served with the U.S. Army's American Division in Vietnam. During combat, a land mine explosion and gunshot wounds resulted in amputation of both his legs. He holds the Bronze Star and Purple Heart medals for his combat service.

Guard Announces Operation Green September

Col. Richard K. Schmidt, of Camp Grayling, and Major General Vernon J. Andrews have announced the Guard is completing the most successful training year in Michigan Army National Guard history.

The Michigan Army National Guard has been increasing its strength over the past years in concert with a nationwide effort to raise end strength to 451,000 by the end of FY-86. To help meet this goal the Michigan Army National Guard has established OPERATION GREEN SEPTEMBER. This operation is to be an all-out concerted effort by all Michigan Army National Guard personnel to increase end strength.

To support this effort, Camp Grayling's Armory will be open from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. during all weekdays in September. Camp Grayling Recruiters SFC Annis and SGT McClain will be available to answer questions from anyone interested in more information pertaining to enlistment options the Guard offers such as the New G.I. Bill, Student Loan Repayment Program, Cash Bonuses, and 75% Tuition Assistance. For more information, call the Recruiting Office at 348-8719 or Toll Free 1-800-292-1366.

GHS & Mercy Hospital Sponsor Preventative Injury Clinic

Grayling High School and Mercy Hospital are sponsoring a Pre-season Preventative Injury Screening Clinic on Saturday, Sept. 20 for all athletes. The Clinic will be conducted by several Licensed Physical Therapists and a Certified Athletic Trainer under the supervision of Dr. Theil.

Each athlete will have his or her history reviewed, posture, flexibility and ligament stability evaluated, percent body fat calculated and tested on a special diagnostic piece of equipment called a Cybex. This machine will give a graphic read-out of strength, power, and endurance of particular joints. Efforts will concentrate on the knee since this is one of the most commonly injured joints. Therapists will interpret the results from the total screening to determine if a potential problem area does exist. If any deficits are noted, the therapist will develop a specific exercise program to improve this area, ultimately attempting to reduce or even eliminate the risk of injury related to this weakness.

The Clinic will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in the Mercy Hospital Physical Therapy Department at Grayling Mercy Hospital. The evaluation will take approximately one half hour per student. Each student will be given a specific time to report. There will be a cost of $10.00 for the screening to cover the expenses of utilization of the Physical Therapy equipment and the therapists time.

For appointments please call (517) 348-5461.

Middle School Bids Worth $626,368 Awarded by Board

The Board of Education awarded $626,368.89 in bids last week representing ten different bid divisions within the middle school construction/renovation project. The bids awarded totaled $36,975 under construction management's estimates. Bids were awarded to Howard Structural Steel for steel erection, to Miner & Son Roofing Company for roofing, to Burdco for carpentry and for painting, to Metal Building Specialties for glass and glazing and aluminum windows and entrances, to Johnson Controls for temperature controls, to Bouma Corporation for acoustical ceilings, to Artec Interiors for an operable wall, and to Valley School & Office Supply for chalk and tackboards.

Construction bids for $2,231,855 have been awarded to date with the total running $84,398.39 under construction management estimates. Eleven bid divisions have still not been awarded in this major phase of the middle school project. These eleven bid divisions represent about $946,000 in work which is slightly above construction management estimates. The Board took action to call a special meeting for Monday, September 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the Grayling Elementary Library for the purpose of awarding bids in those areas. Bid divisions scheduled to be awarded on September 22 are building concrete, masonry, brick restoration, lath, plaster and drywall, resilient tile, ceramic and quarry tile, carpeting, metal toilet partitions, corridor and athletic lockers, and food service equipment.

Superintendent Kent Reynolds updated the Board of Education on construction project progress. The middle school interior demolition is proceeding on schedule with the old boiler having been removed in the past week and the block walls in the old science wing having been removed. Measurements have been taken for footings and foundations and they will be poured within the next week. Latest budget projections show a tight budget with no projected surpluses. The fact that bids awarded to date have been slightly under estimate in total has allowed the budget to remain balanced.

The Board also viewed a video tape of the completed temporary classrooms attached to the bus garage at the high school site. The tape showed students participating in classroom activities. The remainder of the bus garage work is progressing slowly with final electrical hookups yet to be completed and plumbing, heating, and ventilating only in the initial stages. It is hoped that work will speed up at this point so that the bus maintenance operation can transfer from the middle school bus garage to the new facility within the next two weeks.

The Board toured the nearly completed Grayling Elementary additions noting that only minor work needs to be completed. Heating hookups into the new areas should be complete within the next week and carpentry and door work will soon be finished. New library furniture is scheduled to arrive any day and the last few library shelves should arrive and be installed within the next week.

Without rain on several weekends in June, Fish Hatchery manager Howard Hatfield said the attendance mark at the tourist attraction would have broke 40,000 this year.

Even with the rainy weather, the Grayling Fish Hatchery set a new record of 39,117 persons for the 1986 season. The hatchery closed its gates last Sunday for 1986.

Going into the last weekend, the hatchery needed 66 persons to visit to break the old mark of 38,780. Nice weather brought out 103 visitors on the last weekend to see the

Seniors Considering K of C Hall for Center

By Jon Thompson

The Crawford County Commission on Aging is considering buying the Knights of Columbus Hall on Norway Street for a senior citizen center.

The Knights of Columbus offered the hall for sale to the commission Thursday night at a public hearing held to discuss the possibility of acquiring a senior center for the Commission on Aging.

The Commission on Aging board went over to the K of C Hall after the public hearing and will make a report of their findings at their next regular meeting.

An audience of about 90 persons at the public hearing held at the Grayling Housing Commission general purpose room on Lawndale was split on whether the Commission on Aging should buy a center. Currently, the Commission on Aging is renting space at the Grayling Housing Commission.

Mary Harland, chairwoman of the Commission on Aging, opened the public hearing by informing the audience a petition with 53 signatures urging the purchase of the Grayling Housing Commission building had been received. Harland then read a letter from Lillian Kirk who opposed moving from the current location. Kirk felt it wasn't right to ask for thousands of dollars for a new building when there is a perfectly good one already here. She already raised concern whether seniors at the center would go out in the winter for activities and how they would get to another place.

Harold Porter told the commission to try for a new building. "You'll never get this one. The government never gives up a building," he said.

Henry Forester said the commission should buy the building they're in now if they can. "I'd rather stay here," he said.

Matt Bidvia asked if Congressman Schuette had made any progress checking into the possible purchase of the Grayling Housing Commission building where Commission on Aging programs are currently located.

Harland said Schuette was still looking into it, but Guy Quigley, the Grayling Housing Commission director, said HUD (the owner of the Grayling Housing Commission buildings) would not sell any building or split up any project until the entire project was paid off. Quigley said $1 to $1.5 million still has to be paid to HUD. He estimated it would be a long time before the debt was paid off and said it was possible no one in the room would ever see it paid off. Once the project is paid for, Quigley said, the property is turned over to the city of Grayling.

Teresa Fenton asked what restrictions are placed on the Commission on Aging when using the Grayling Housing Commission building.

Quigley said bingo and alcohol use is prohibited, but most other activities will be considered by the Grayling Housing Commission. Whatever programs work well for the Commission on Aging are acceptable through the Grayling Housing Commission with HUD approval, he said.

Harland said some senior programs have been dropped at the center simply because there was not enough senior volunteer help to run the programs. "We must have seniors come forth to help supervise," Harland said. "Some seniors have mistaken the duties of the Commission on Aging director. It isn't her job to be at all these programs day and night. We need seniors to step forward and take this responsibility."

Matt Bidvia spoke again and said he feels there are some seniors in the county who don't come to the Commission on Aging programs here because they think they are not eligible for them.

"Personally, this is the best place for me," he said. "I'm not opposed to moving out, but I'd rather stay as long as everything can be worked out."

Millie Crosby said she agreed with Lillian Kirk.

"As long as we have this, let's stay here. Everyone is happy." She added that she thought the proposal to buy the Assembly of God church for a center was an awful lot of money for an old building.

The Assembly of God building is offered for sale at $40,000 and the Commission on Aging estimated $155,000 in renovations would be needed to turn it into a senior center.

Emma Knibbs wanted to stay also.

"I feel this building is good enough for us. We've had a lot of good times here and still can have good times here."

"It would be hard for us to participate in another place," said Wilma Sunday. "I would like to stay here."

Z. Holzman said she was satisfied to stay put and Edna Feldhauser said she's been happy here for 14 and a half years and can't think of any reason to move.

"I'm very happy where I am and I won't go anywhere else!", Loretta Barnes emphatically stated.

Rose Robbins said the Assembly of God building could be a nice place and there wasn't a single problem that couldn't be

Friend of Court Ranks Among Best in Efficiency With $1.7 Million Collected

By Jon Thompson

The Friend of the Court office for Crawford, Otsego, and Kalkaska counties is ranked among the most efficient child support agencies in the nation.

The entire state of Michigan is ranked first in the nation — collecting $7.62 in child support payments for every dollar spent. Michigan's $7.62 per dollar collection rate was more than double the national average of $3.31 collected per dollar.

Friend of the Court officer R. Jack Lewis said part of the reason Michigan is ranked so high is a Friend of the Court Act passed in 1919 that makes Friend of the Court the enforcement arm of the circuit court in child support.

"Michigan is one of the few states that does this," said Lewis. "Lots of states don't have Friend of the Court and collection is through the Social Services department or the Prosecuting Attorney."

The three-county local Friend of the Court is above the state average — collecting $8.07 for every dollar spent.

Lewis said part of the reason for the high efficiency is excellent funding and support from all three county boards.

"Although we're almost self-supporting, the counties still have to put money up front," he said.

In 1986, Crawford County advanced the Friend of the Court $90,769, he said. The Friend of the Court will get back at least $80,000 of that through the state co-operative reimbursement program, state and federal incentive programs, and statutory fees, Lewis said. Statutory fees are $24 a year for every person using Friend of the Court services.

For the three-county district in 1985, the Friend of the Court collected $1,766,905 in child support. The cost of operating the Friend of the Court office in 1985 was $218,916.

Subtract $204,256 in revenues from the co-operative reimbursement program, incentive programs, and fees, and the net cost of operating the office was $14,660 for the year, said Lewis.

The three-county Friend of the Court employs three investigators, three clerks, a staff attorney, an officer manager, and director Lewis. It handles about 2010 cases currently. In the almost nine years Lewis has been with Friend of the Court, he said the case load has grown from 346 to more than 2,000.

Hatchery Closes Near 40,000 Mark

Without rain on several weekends in June, Fish Hatchery manager Howard Hatfield said the attendance mark at the tourist attraction would have broke 40,000 this year.

"They grow more in one day here than they do a week in the wilds," said Hatfield.

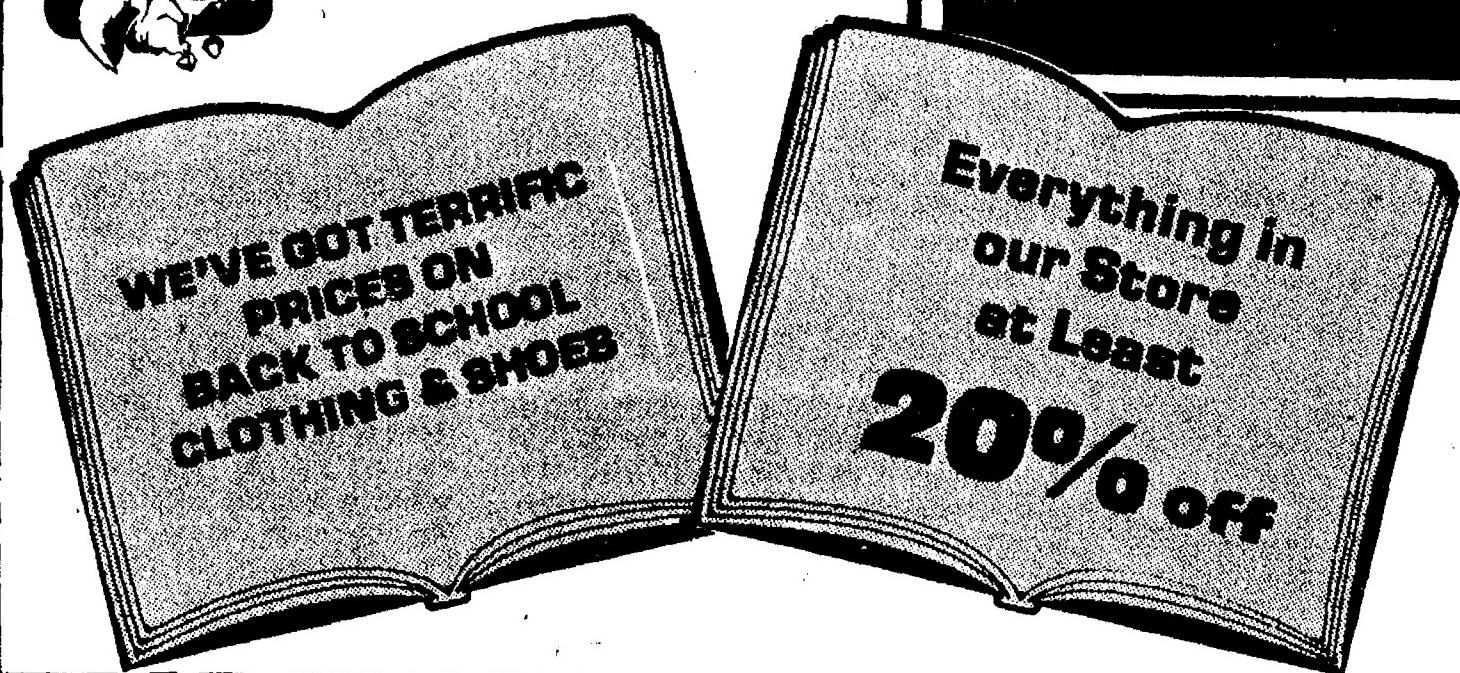

For the fourth year in a row, the hatchery had no major losses among the trout they lease from trout farms. Hatfield reported less than one percent loss during the season, below the average loss at trout farms.

About the only problem the hatchery had was two large blue herons sneaking in for a tasty snack. Hatfield said the birds visited the hatchery for the last three to four weeks.

From Our Corner...

For what it's worth...

In part, this is the tail of a non-fisherman, going fishing...or in other words, the ol' fella spent Friday afternoon in Muskegon salmon fishing...we should have stayed home...

Last Friday, we were guests of General Telephone along with Pete Richards of the Alpena News, Terry Fitzwater from the Rogers City Advance, Craig Nelson from the Davison Index, Howard Kaiser, Richmond Review and Paul Engel of the Minden City Herald...

Our hosts for the day were Lowell Kinney, Director of Public Affairs; Frank Buck, Communications Director; Bob Stevens, Operations Support, Central Division and Joel Sietsema of the Northern Division from Gaylord...

Hopefully with everyone accounted for, we take you through our day of September 12th, a day I will long remember...we drove to Gaylord and joined Joel for the pickup by the Gen-Tel jet at 9 o'clock a.m., that arrived from Flint with the Thumb area guys, from Gaylord, it was to Alpena to pick up Pete and Terry...and 40 minutes later we were having coffee and rolls with the head haunchaus of Gen Tel for Michigan in Muskegon...

Following our coffee break, we were whisked off to the downtown installation of Gen Tel that handles everything complaint wise, and long distance, and anything else their computers do except pour coffee...one gal remarked she had handled 430 calls on Thursday by herself, and there were quite a few ladies in that one department...

All this was fine and dandy...I still had my land legs even though they were getting a little tired going up and down three stories...

I should have asked, but, I'm sure Gen Tel can afford elevators in their buildings, especially for us ol' fella's...

At 1:00 o'clock we boarded the fishing boats, the group was split six to a boat, and we headed out...beautiful while we were on Muskegon Lake and in the channel but, the Captain decided to go into Lake Michigan, and the waves must have been six feet high...

I thought I was on a roller-coaster going upside down and sideways...all at once...

In fact I got a callus on my hand trying to hang on to the table down in the cabin...this lasted all afternoon, back and forth from the channel and Lake Michigan, while in the channel I got well, then we'd hit the big lake and my gills would turn green again...

I have never been this sick since 1945 when we sailed from Okinawa to Korea just after the second typhoon had hit Okinawa...for three days I layed in my sack and the only thing I ate was fruit cocktail that my buddy would bring me...

As I was down in the cabin feeling sorry for myself, I also envied the young guys out on the aft having a great time...hoping for a strike, when my turn was up, all I hoped for was that the salmon would go away...

Living over on Lake Huron, Pete and Terry were old salts at this salmon fishing, so I took a little razzing on not having a sea stomach...like I mentioned, inland lakes I can handle...for awhile on Lake Michigan I thought I was back on the Pacific...

Our boat got skunked, one salmon broke a 20 pound test line on our first strike, then after that it was just nothing...

The other boat brought in five, the largest was 18 pounds plus...

One can imagine the verbal abuse our crew took while having a cocktail and steak dinner at the Muskegon Country Club...I was glad I got my land legs back by then...

In parting, I must say, I'll take a jet anyday over a boat out in Lake Michigan...

By the way, I did buy a one day fishing license...maybe I should have waited until I caught a fish, but then I don't have the pull Coleman does...

Time to bid our gals T.J., Stefany and Amber goodnight, and to anyone who has been crazy enough to read this column, have a nice weekend...if you don't want to catch fish, invite me along...

NEW MORALITY FOR CATHOLICS?

Since many Catholic theologians have denied infallibility to any previous moral or ethical pronouncement of the pope or church, and have denied such infallibility to the Bible also, where are they calling Catholics to turn, for authority in right and wrong?

Timothy E. O'Connell has said in his textbook on Catholic morality, "...in fact the Catholic does not approach his ethical decision-making with any unique and dependable sources." He is implying there is no infallible standard for right and wrong for a Catholic today. O'Connell uses liberal "situational ethics" to justify such a statement. He says, "...only one who is thoroughly aware of the various situational factors can dare to risk a definitive judgment. And there is no guarantee that such a judgment will continue to have validity in some new situation." Elsewhere in his book he speaks of human culture changing ethics and morals.

O'Connell implies that the New Morality know for sure what is right and wrong. Since O'Connell has denied infallibility to pope or church pronouncements and parts of Holy Scripture, where does he look for authority? He answers this, "Not an ethic predicated on a fundamentalistic use of our scripture and magisterial sources, but a rational ethic suffused and illuminated by a vision of humans and their world..." His law for authority appears not to be his pope, his church, or his Bible, but his own opinion and the opinion of other humans. He has said, "...there is no other law of Christ than the law of our own being." He trusts human experience for morality, "...moral teachings...emerge out of historic human experience, and not what is right and wrong.

Coach's Rules are Tough

by Richard Milliman

WITH SCHOOLS BACK in session across the country, thousands of young athletes are being turned over to the tender, loving care of team coaches, for better or for worse.

The Coach is a very important person in the life of these young people. They will work hard, sweat and strain, and probably complain and even cuss, and all because of The Coach.

But The Coach can also be a role model. This is "Authority," and in many cases, it is the first real authority to which young people subject themselves voluntarily. Taking part in team sports in school is still voluntary, and the young athletes are trying to please The Coach so they can participate. It's the opening of a whole new world for these young folks, in many cases.

WHAT BRINGS all this to mind is a recent event in Lansing, where the Greater Lansing Area Sports Hall of Fame received several additional nominees.

One was the Williamston High School basketball team of 1940, which was the best team in Williamston history up to that point—and probably since. This team won the state championship, losing only one game all year. Tallest player on the squad was 5'9", which makes it a midget team, even by standards in those days.

But the coach was innovative. Floyd Eby was then a 22-year-old senior at Michigan State University, who also coached at Williamston. He came up with enough strategy to win a state championship; but he also had some rules, which by today's standards may be as out-of-place as a basketball team where the tallest player is 5'9".

ANYWAY, COACH EBY'S standards were a combination of rules and principles, and all the players knew them. The 10 rules were these:

1. On days of practice or games, you are

GOVERNOR CALLS FOR EXPANSION OF MICHIGAN YOUTH CORPS

Governor Blanchard proposed that the Michigan Youth Corps be expanded next year to offer a job to every 18 to 21-year-old willing to work.

The announcement followed the release of the Governor's "Strategy for Michigan's Future," in which he called for expanding the size and scope of the Youth Corps as one of the steps to using the foundation of the past four years to build a future of opportunity and jobs for Michigan's young people.

"I am saying to every young person in Michigan between 18 and 21 who doesn't have a summer job and who is willing to work—You will have a job. We will find you work," Blanchard said.

"We will put even more of our young people to work in our parks and roadside areas and beaches and museums, doing meaningful work important to Michigan."

The Youth Corps was proposed by Blanchard and approved by the Legislature in 1983.

During the first summer, 67,000 youths applied for 25,000 jobs. By the end of this summer, the program will have provided 72,000 summer jobs, including 12,500 this summer.

The wide variety of work performed by the Corps this year includes: Establishment of a Cleanwater Corps to work on more than 100 water-related projects statewide; historical renovation of an 1869 farmhouse in Oakland County's Waterford Township to serve as a museum, in conjunction with Michigan's Sesquicentennial; and participation in the first international young worker exchange program between Michigan and the Netherlands.

A survey conducted last year for the Youth Corps showed that 75 percent of the Youth Corps graduates had landed jobs or were enrolled in school or receiving job training.

Gleffe - Thompson Vows Spoken

Beverly June Gleffe and Patrick Scott Thompson were united in marriage on Saturday, September 13, 1986. The wedding took place in the garden of the Saginaw Bay Yacht Club, Essexville, with the honorable Gordon Thompson (Mayor of Grayling) grooms father officiating at the 1:00 o'clock ceremony.

For her wedding the bride chose a chapel length gown of slipper satin trimmed with venise lace. A design of iridescent sequence and pearls adorned the fitted bodice and scoop neckline. Satin bows on the shoulders complimented the short sleeves with scattered pearls. A custom design headpiece of chantilly lace and pearls featured a finger tip veil with blusher; both veils were trimmed with chantilly lace, venise lace and pearls. The blusher had scattered lace motifs and pearls.

The bride carried a silk bouquet of white gardenias, red and white rose buds, stephanotis and baby's breath, pearls and iridescent stamens added a special touch. Ribbon streamers of red satin and white lace completed the bouquet.

Bonnie Jean Gleffe, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Matron of honor was Barbara Jo Giulio, sister of the bride and bridesmaid was Bridget Marie Thompson. The attendants wore identical tea length dresses of apple red satin, styled with V-neckline, short puff sleeves, strapped bodice and tulip skirt. They carried red and white silk rose buds, button mums, miniature orchids, baby's breath and pearls. Red and white satin ribbon streamers complimented their bouquets. Matching miniature orchids and pearls were worn in their hair.

Randy Gordon Thompson was best man for his brother. Groomsmen were Terry Jae Hisler, and Casey Gerard Thompson.

The bride is the daughter of Robert J. and Dorothy E. Gleffe of Bradenton, Florida, formerly of Saginaw. She attended Douglas MacArthur High School, Saginaw, and Michigan State University, E. Lansing.

The groom is the son of Gordon "Sandy" and Jeanne Thompson of Grayling, and

Fall is Checkup Time For Home Furnace

By Gall Edwards,
Ext. Home Eco.

Shorter days and cooler weather are signs that winter is on its way so now is the time to winterize your home heating system so it's ready to face the demands that Michigan's cold winters can place on it.

Defective or poorly maintained heating equipment deprives the homeowner of needed warmth while raising fuel bills. More importantly, turning on a combustion furnace that hasn't been serviced properly or inspected creates a risk of asphyxiation or fire.

Here are a few reminders:

* Replace disposable air filters when dirty with replacements that bear the Underwriters Laboratories (UL) listing mark.

* Wash permanent filters in mild soap and water to help increase furnace efficiency and promote safe operation.

* Clean baseboard heaters, warm air outlet registers and air returns of accumulated dust, and be sure that they are not covered by rugs, drapes or curtains.

* Make sure that room thermostats are free of dust and correctly set.

* Clean and inspect the humidifier for optimum operation. Even if your heating unit has been kept in top operating condition, these inspections and services are recommended at the start of each heating season.

* Inspect air blower belts and adjust the tension, or replace them if they're worn.

* When applicable, depending on the type of equipment, ment, eliminate accumulated scale from the fire box and combustion chamber.

* Inspect for perforation, cracks or openings in the heat exchanger, which may permit byproducts of combustion to leak into the heated air supply.

* Inspect the flue pipe and connections between the heating unit and chimney, and check the chimney for any blockage or accumulation of soot.

* Clean the circulating air blower wheel and the combustion air blower wheel if one is provided on the heating unit.

* Check boilers for proper water level.

If a low water cut-off is provided, determine whether the cut-off is functioning properly, DuPage advises. Then determine whether all safety controls (limit and primary safety controls) and fuel shut-off valves are in working order. If the unit contains an adjustable fan switch, the controls should be set to the manufacturer's recommendations.

If the unit is provided with an automatic vent damper, check that too. It should open when the burner is in operation and close after the burner shuts down.

For gas-burning units, also determine if the pilot or pilots are burning properly, and that the burner ignition by the pilot is satisfactory.

"It's important that the pilot flame be steady," DuPage notes. "A small or yellow flame indicates either that the pilot burner is dirty or that the pressure regulator needs adjustments."

A: Research has shown that players appreciate variety in the games, so the Lottery obliges by changing them to maintain player interest.

Q: What kinds of prize structures are there?
A: Some games may feature $100,000 lump sum prizes while other games may offer the same amount in ten annual installments of $10,000. The current instant game, "Fall Fiesta," offers some 42 players the chance to win prizes ranging from $10,000 to $100,000 by spinning a prize wheel. Other prizes range from "Free Tickets" to $50. Some instant games offer players yet another chance to win by having an additional rub-off portion on the ticket stub.

Q: Is it the instant games that create the grand prize drawings on television?
A: Yes. Some instant games have a structure that provides for six players to compete for a top prize of $1 million.

Q: What are the odds of winning in instant games?
A: Odds are better than one in four that an instant game player will win a prize of a "Free Ticket" or more. And because players have stated that they like more small prizes, recent games have shifted the allotment of prize money to allow for more small prizes, creating many more $2, $5, $10 and $50 winners.

Q: Will the instant games continue to change?
A: Yes. The Lottery carefully studies and reviews the games to find which types are most popular. The games will continue to evolve to keep up with the changing tastes of lottery game players.

Because their instant game questions led to this column, M. G. Kosura of Lansing and Nora Moceri of Roseville each will receive 50 "Fall Fiesta" instant game tickets.

If you have a lottery question you'd like answered, send it to: "Winners Circle," Michigan Lottery, P.O. Box 30077, Lansing, MI 48909.

American Legion Auxiliary Newsby Laurie Jenson,
P.R. Director

Monday, September 8, the men held their regular monthly meeting. They were voting on whether or not to sell Post 106. They voted to go ahead and sell. As many know, I am much opposed to selling our post home and going to a private club. Their decision is I'm sure going to bring many changes.

As many of you also know, I have been a bingo caller for quite some time. Effective Tuesday, September 9, 1986, I will no longer be associated with the bingo of Post 106.

It is also with much regret from many of us as of Wednesday, September 10, we have now lost someone who has been one of the best supporters and workers of Unit 106. I am sad to announce that our President of Grayling's American Legion Auxiliary Unit 106, Roselyn Johnson has resigned. When you have people fighting every move you try to make, it becomes tiresome. You cannot be an effective leader when no one will follow.

The men have also lost two fine officers. Your 1st and 2nd Vice Commanders Frank Jenson and Carl Johnson have tendered their resignations.

Finally, this is the last article you will ever read by this P.R. Director. With this writing I hereby tender my own resignation. I have put in for a transfer of my membership so I will no longer be an associate of Unit 106.

Band Aid Report

The total uniform fund now exceeds $10,000. "Radio Band Aid" is underway this week. Listen to WQON each morning as local persons work to help the total grow.

A sample marching band uniform is on display at Glen's Market. The uniform is "similar" to the uniform selected for purchase. The uniform will be purchased with two coats. The concert coat will be the color of the trousers and have a green satin shawl collar. If you request further information regarding the uniform, call Kathy Burkley, 348-7263.

Let's keep the Viking band wagon on the move by supporting the fund raiser.

Assisting Small Businesses

Small business owners, do you realize that in 1985 small businesses lead the nation in job creation? Employment rose 5.9% in small business firms compared to .6% in larger firms, and 60% of the work force is in small business. And yet, things were not all rosy for small businesses last year. Bankruptcies, business failures and business dissolutions rose compared to a year earlier.

You realize also, that at no cost to you there is help for small businesses in your local communities? As part of the Northeast Michigan Consortium/Community Growth Alliance assistance is available to small business, whether the business is a start-up or existing, in areas of financial packaging, management and technical planning. Services include counseling, training and a resource for published business assistance material.

The assistance is made available in part by grants from the Small Business Administration, the Michigan Department of Commerce and the Consortium. The assistance is also coordinated and used as a referral source by Kirtland Community College and Alpena Community College.

The Grayling office, located at 2405 S. Grayling Road, has scheduled office hours from 1:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. each Thursday. To set up an appointment, phone Dave Ballantyne at 517-348-8709 or 517-732-3886.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

by Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

Early this summer I got into a discussion with an Old Timer about the quality and quantity of food used around logging camps. He made an off hand comment about the amount of vinegar used by the cook and the men. The vinegar was brought into camp by the half barrel which was thirty gallons.

One thing leads to another and while seeking information for another purpose I ran across the following which further accounts for the Old Timers' reference to vinegar. Meat marinated in vinegar and seasonings will tenderize it and improve the flavor. It is said that an excellent pie crust recipe listed vinegar in its ingredients, as do several recipes for ginger cookies and gingerbread.

Drinking half a glass of water to which two teaspoons of cider vinegar has been added a short time before eating is said to avert problems from greasy food. Bacon can be freshened by placing it in a cold cast iron skillet, then covering with boiling water, add one tablespoon of cider vinegar and bring to a simmer for five minutes. Drain off the greasy liquid and fry until crisp.

A few drops of cider vinegar in your dogs water encourages a glossy coat and tempers doggy odors. Applying cold cider vinegar to minor burns will relieve the pain and for sunburn pat the vinegar on gently. Incidentally one source states that apple cider vinegar has a high potassium and calcium content. A teaspoon of cider vinegar in a glass of water is a good tooth cleaner and mouthwash.

graciously agreed to return as the leader of the group. Jean adds her personal touch to each class to make swimming and exercise fun, and this program was extremely popular with both the male and female seniors last year.

Anyone interested should be at poolside early for instructions and any necessary paperwork that may be needed the first time you attend.

Public Hearing Notice: A Public Hearing will be held September 22, 1986, 5:30 p.m., at the COA office, 308 Lawndale Drive. The Hearing will regard the Commission on Aging budget for fiscal year '86-'87. The public is encouraged to attend.

Sept. 8, 1986
Crawford Co. Avalanche
Grayling, Michigan

To The Editor:

I attended the public hearing, noted in the front page article of the August 17, 1986 Avalanche, concerning the proposed updating of the present management plan for the Deward Tract.

The testimony given by both the DNR and public indicates that the river and adjoining land is starting to respond to the management techniques and stream bank rehabilitation that have been instituted in that area.

It is apparent that a success story is in the making due to the cooperative efforts of Trout Unlimited, Michigan Wildlife Habitat Foundation, Michigan Dept. of Natural Resources and, I might add, the Crawford-Roscommon and Otsego Soil Conservation Districts.

Even though the article failed to mention the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District, the district directors and personnel consider the Deward Tract rehabilitation as one of the many successful cooperative projects the district has participated in. If your readers have any concerns about soil erosion problems on public or private lands, in Crawford or Roscommon Counties, please contact the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District at 409 Lake Street, Roscommon, Michigan or call 517/275-5231. "Success and Assistance" is the district's motto.

Harold Mertes
District Chairman

Where will it end?

We were asked to raise $.3 millage for Bear Mt. - and out of the goodness of our hearts we voted it in - so the kids and people of our community could ski, etc., etc., etc.

We voted in the school millage for Dial-A-Ride so people could have transportation, that didn't have it.

We voted in the school millage for our kids to get a better education, or so they say.

Now they want us to vote in a millage for Ambulance Service.

Why should the county engage in a service that could be obtained from a private service, cheaper.

The county has engaged in about every business activity going from renting out office space to garage repair, airport service - to wrecker service, and God only knows what else.

We can just barely pay our taxes now - If at All - and they want more. What are they going to want next? It's time to stand up and say No!

Deadline For Antlerless Deer Permits Sept 24

Lansing — Two types of Hunter's Choice Deer Licenses are available to deer hunters this year: Regular and Landowner Limited. These licenses allow hunters to take either antlered or antlerless deer in specific areas with crop damage, severe shortages of winter food, or high numbers of vehicle-deer collisions.

To be eligible for a Landowner Limited Hunter's Choice Deer License, applicants must be the owner, renter, or lessee of 40 acres or more of huntahle land. Hunters may lease hunting rights with or without compensation to the landowner, but they must carry a signed lease when hunting. Lease forms are available from county offices of the United States Department of Agriculture Cooperative Extension Service or from the Lansing office of the Michigan Farm Bureau (7373 West Saginaw, Lansing, Michigan 48917). The deadline for application for both Regular and Landowner Limited Hunter's Choice Licenses is September 24, 1986.

Blood Pressure Clinic Sept. 22

Mercy Hospital, Grayling and the Crawford County Chapter of the American Red Cross will hold their monthly Blood Pressure Clinic, Monday, Sept. 22 in the Lobby of Mercy Hospital. This blood pressure screening is free to all persons. Clinic times are from 3:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

"This is an excellent service to the community," commented Ms. Pat Hanson, Community Services Coordinator for Mercy Hospital.

"The clinic keeps growing due in part I think to people's awareness of the need to have their blood pressure checked regularly, especially if they are under a physician's care for high blood pressure. Our clinic last month had 83 people. We would like to see it continue to grow, because when it does we know we are helping people to monitor their own health."

Perfume is perfume and I am sometimes surprised, if not awed, by some of the plants that are used for their fragrance.

Sweet Flag, Acorus calamus, also known as calamus root, is such a plant for sweet uses. Sweet Flag surprised me with its small flower — a two inch piece of something comparable to a bit of animal waste. The tall blades are nothing when fresh, but do smell very sweet and are very fragrant when dried. The root of Sweet Flag is used in perfume as well as a fixative in potpourri. This herb is a water lover, liking swamps or extremely moist soil, but well worth the effort to grow.

Lavender Cotton, San-

tolina chamaecyparissus, or

Grey Santolina smells rather different; some would even say it stinks. It, too, is used in perfume, not to mention in wreaths for its white-grey color or fragrance to deter some insects. We use the Grey Santolina for wreaths because it lends a lacy effect in the background and is attractive without other decorations.

Wormwood, Artemisia absinthium, smells something like camphor, but on the sweet side. It, too, is used in perfume. We use it in wreaths for its light grey effect as well as its fragrance for deterring insects. In fact all Artemisias are usually used in moth bags, along with Sweet Woodruff, Lavender, Feverfew, Yarrow, Tansy, and some mints. Pioneers would gather most of these herbs to dry and put among their linen and clothing, especially blankets to deter insects as well as help the musty odor in wooden boxes.

Herbally yours,
E. Diana Cerelli, C.H.

General Hygiene

Hygiene, or the practice conducive to health, does not essentially change with age, but new ways need to be devised which make it easier for the elderly person to give self-care.

Good hygiene plays a part in maintaining a positive self-image, as well as being important in supporting general health. Behavioral patterns and attitudes are greatly influenced by hygiene, and a person's hygiene practices sometimes gives clues to feelings about one's self.

The elderly may have difficulty meeting their needs alone. In some cases, they may be unaware that their hygiene is in need of correction. The person may not realize that his clothes are soiled, hair is unkempt, and/or teeth need brushing. An older person's eyesight often becomes less sharp, and trembling hands are apt to spill food and misbutton sweaters.

Bathing and caring for clothes, or even dressing properly takes an expenditure of effort and energy that is often too much for those hindered with the physical problems of age. The caregiver must not assume that because a person is not always neat and clean that this is the way the person chooses to appear or that the person is even aware of an imperfect self-image.

Elderly persons are not children and cannot be helped in quite the same way. A child takes dependency for granted; an adult cannot. Self-esteem is quickly lost when dependency is forced on an adult or if unnecessary attention is called for an obvious need for help.

In being overly or unnecessarily helpful, the caregiver may rob the person of what dignity is left. Assist the person only as is needed in carrying out basic personal hygiene. Be tactful in helping the person become aware of any deficiencies and the way in which the person can be helped to improve.

Vikings Fall To Cheboygan 28-0

Junior Vikings Win 2nd, 16-6

Grayling continued its tough running attack and defense at the junior varsity level and beat Cheboygan 16-6 at the Chiefs' field last Thursday.

Viking coach Fred Wolcott said the game wasn't as close as the score. Grayling forced Cheboygan to punt on the first possession of the game. Rusty Argue then continued his fine running with a 65-yard dash into the end zone on the first play. The play was called back, however, because of a penalty on the bench for going past the 30-yard restraining line on the sidelines while they were cheering the run.

The Vikings were undaunted and John Larnie scored on the very next play with a 45-yard run off a counter play. Argue scored the two extra points on a run.

Grayling stopped Cheboygan again and drove 50 yards for a score. Argue went in from the one yard line and ran in the extra points for a 16-0 lead.

Penalties and a wet night halted the Vikings most of the rest of the night. After Cheboygan scored six points, worked out if the commission moved there.

Ken Eggert felt there were some real advantages for the commission to own their own building. He said the people wanted to stay here and urged everyone to write personal letters to their congressmen.

Nick Pope asked the commission where the money would come from for a new building. Sherry Haag, Commission on Aging director, said there is $14,000 in a building fund. She also said fundraisers and donations would be used. Currently, the commission pays about $10,000 out of millage revenues for rent. The commission, if they acquire their own center, will check to see if they can use millage money for payments on a long-term lease or a mortgage.

Alex Donaldson told the commission to pursue every avenue possible to purchase the building from HUD. He said the federal government is cutting down on grants now and he doesn't think many would be available for a new building. He felt buying the Assembly of God building would be putting money down the drain.

At this point in the public hearing, Jerry Fagan, from the Knights of Columbus, stood up and offered the K of C Hall to the commission.

"Make us an offer on it, everything in it is included with the sale," he said. "It's barrier-free and has a 350-person seating capacity. If you want to make money, you could have Bingo and fish-frys. Everything is ready to go. The main building is 105 by 50 feet. There's a 32 by 40 foot building out back for offices, and there's enough parking for for 250 cars."

Ruby Reetz, thought the K of C offer sounded good.

"Why fight to try to buy an HUD building when it will take years to pay off and then when it does it belongs to the city?"

John Tournaud asked the commission why the topic of moving to another building was brought up in the first place.

Blanche Miller said additional parking and food space could be used, the commission is limited in fundraisers here, and some people will not come to the current location for personal reasons.

Velma Lobdell gave another reason for moving.

"Some of you weren't here the night HUD padlocked the doors. We said that we would never go through that again. There's no insurance that they couldn't do it again."

Elmer Fenton asked the K of C members why they were offering the hall for sale if they have only owned it for a couple of years.

Fagan said the Knights have experienced a drop in membership and the hall was burning up volunteer help.

"There's about 20 of us running the hall and it's either going to kill us or put us in an insane asylum," he said.

Fagan invited the entire board over to look at the building that night. The board will report their views on the building at an October 9th regular meeting. In addition, the Commission on Aging will investigate whether the commission can own property or must have the county purchase any property for them.

Klinger. Cheboygan outweighed Grayling by 5-10 pounds at most positions and had two league track champions in their backfield.

Klinger said the Viking team felt they hit the other team pretty hard but just ran into a good team. One bright note from the game was a compliment from the Cheboygan staff after the game. They told the Grayling coaches that the Viking offensive line beat their line off the ball all night.

"We were pleased with the charge off the ball of our line," said Klinger. "Welser, LaGrow, Laurent, Weatherly, Neilson, Alireni, and McEvers gave good protection for passing and pounded out good holes for running."

Another bright spot in the game was the punting team. Punter Jason McEvers had seven kicks including three for 47, 48, and 53 yards. The coverage on the punts was excellent as well, Klinger said.

Cheboygan scored in the first quarter when they were on the Cheboygan 15. On a pass thrown into the end zone, pass interference was called on the offense. The penalty gave Grayling a fourth down and 20 and a long pass went incomplete.

Grayling gained 78 yards on the ground and 60 through the air. Jeff Wolcott gained 49 yards, Jeff Palmer 24, and Paul Anteau 9. Todd Klinger complete 5 of 12 passes with McEvers catching four for 32 yards and Palmer one for 30 yards.

Jim Laurent led the team with 14 tackles, Flaske Robins had 13, Wolcott 11, Tom Shively 9, and Rick Sprague 7. Palmer had three interceptions.

Grayling travels to Petoskey Friday.

West Branch Nips Grayling Girls 40-39

INSIDE POINTS — Shawn Denton grabbed a rebound off a missed free throw and put in this shot to give Grayling two points. Richele Trudeau watches from behind. (Jon Thompson Photo)

Tami Rose is a pretty sounding name, but the Grayling Viking girls basketball team doesn't like the sound of it after a 40-39 loss to West Branch last Thursday.

Rose, a senior center for West Branch, scored more than half her team's points as she hit for 22 points in the tight game.

The smaller Vikings almost upset the 5-0 West Branch squad as Grayling came from behind to take a four-point lead in the final quarter.

Rose put her team ahead by one point with 51 seconds left and Grayling had three chances to win the game. A traveling violation and two shots that wouldn't fall gave Grayling their second narrow defeat against one win.

West Branch used a strong inside game to take a 13-7 lead in the first quarter.

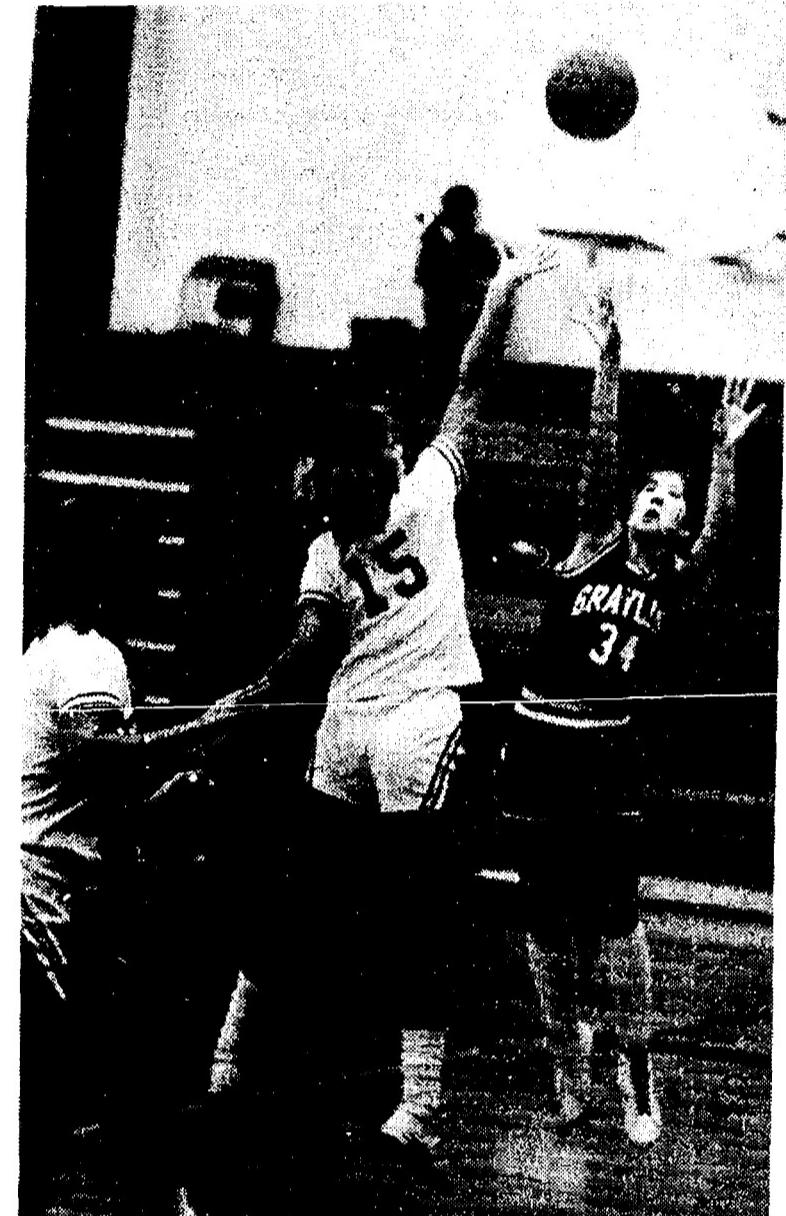

Grayling used its quickness to cut the halftime lead to 23-21. At three quarters it was 31-31 and the fourth quarter went back and forth.

West Branch stayed alive in the game by hitting free throws. Although the Vikings outscored them 32 to 24 from the field, West Branch hit 16 of 32 free throws compared to 7 of 13 for Grayling.

Michelle Moore led Grayling with 14 points and 7 steals. Shawn Denton and Richele Trudeau each scored 8, Dena Thayer had 4, Jennifer Ojala 3, and Rebecca Jones had 2. Denton led the squad with 12 rebounds, Jones had 10, Ojala 6, and Trudeau 4. Jones also had 6 steals.

Grayling starts league play Tuesday at Petoskey.

J.V.'s Win 3rd

In Row 37-29

The junior varsity Vikings ran their record to 3-0 with a 37-29 victory over West Branch last Thursday at home.

J.V. coach Dan Ullery said his team won with their quickness.

"We won by pressing. They didn't have any ball handlers," said Ullery.

Melaine Ojala led the team with 6 steals. Patti Tremblay, A.J. Pratt, and Lori Gust all had 4 steals each.

Grayling blew the game open with their pressing. By the third quarter the score was 34-11.

Tremblay led the team with 11 points and Ojala had 10. Deanna Phelps had 7, Peggy Kraus 3, A.J. Pratt 2, Lori Gust 2, and Nikki Trenary 2.

Tremblay and Gust led the team with 8 rebounds each.

Grayling takes its 3-0 record into conference play Tuesday, Sept. 23, at Petoskey.

I Bet You Didn't Know... Brought To You By Brad Scheer

Here's an interesting question... Can you guess which man has played in more World Series games than anyone else in history?...Answer is Yogi Berra... Yogi set the all-time record by playing in a grand total of 75 different World Series games.

* * * What was the strongest World Series ever played?...Did you know that in 1960?...Did you know that the Yankees scored 55 runs and the Pirates only 27, yet the Pirates won the Series four games to three?

* * * Could you imagine the manager of a pennant-winning baseball team saying he didn't want his team to play in the World Series?...Did you know such a thing once happened?...It was in 1904...The Giants won the National League pennant but their manager, John McGraw, refused to let them meet the American League winner, the Red Sox,...And so, no World Series was played in 1904.

* * * I bet you didn't know...That GM and Scheer Motors now is offering its lowest in the history of auto financing interest rate, 2.9%. Also our Chrysler division is offering 2.4%. Please come to Scheer Motors during our year and clearances. Deeds will never be better!

Good Marriages

Some years ago a young woman, struggling with her marriage and the demands of family life, asked me, "Do you really think there are any good marriages and healthy families today?"

After more than three decades counseling people with marriage and family problems—and being married 30 years—I have some observations if not conclusions.

If you mean by GOOD MARRIAGES and FAMILIES that there are no cross words, disagreements, and verbal fights; no, I don't know of any.

If you mean families in which there are no misgivings (at times) about having married each other, about having had children, or wanting to run from it all; no, I know of none.

If you mean families in which the mates and children have never wanted to change each other, make each other over, and felt at times like hurting one another; no, I know of no good marriages and families.

But if you mean by GOOD FAMILIES that there are creative tensions, heartaches that bring them closer, disagreements that are realistically dealt with; yes, I know of many.

If you mean by GOOD FAMILIES those who are pulling together in the same direction without losing individuality, and willing to allow each other to develop their own special gifts even though risks are involved; yes, I know of many.

Weyerhaeuser Foundation Donates $7000To Crawford AuSable Day Care

$7000 DONATION — Dan Hanson, process engineer for the Grayling Weyerhaeuser plant, gives a check for $7000 from the Weyerhaeuser Foundation to Pam Fisher, director of the Crawford AuSable Day Care Center.

Crawford AuSable Day Care recently received their 4th year of funding from the Weyerhaeuser Foundation. The Day Care center was given a $7000 check from the Weyerhaeuser Foundation.

The Day Care Center has been available for working parents in this community since 1980. The center has remained in good standing as a licensed child care facility in accordance with Act 116 of the Michigan Dept. of Social Services.

Crawford AuSable Day Care is operated for the purpose of offering working parents, or for parents recommended for day care participation, the following programs:

1. A developmentally designed atmosphere to create learning through play for children 2 weeks old - 2 1/2 years old.

2. A primary classroom structure for the development of children 3, 4, and 5. The organization of this classroom stimulates growth through small group instruction of kindergarten readiness skills, group activities and developmentally designed learning centers.

3. Parenting classes. Classes are available by request. They include: discussion time, problem brain storming, observation of group activities, and respite care for the stressed family.

4. Child care is available for children over 5 for "after school care". This service is available to parents previously participating in the program.

The Day Care is a non-profit institution with a governing board of directors. They are funded by parents' tuitions used for the purpose of staff salaries and occupancy costs. We currently employ 6 full time staff, two certified instructors, and 4 instructional aides. These salaries are currently subsidized by the Weyerhaeuser Foundation. The foundation monies are the main reason the center can offer its existing extensive program. The center is also supported by the Crawford County United Way. These funds are used for the purchase of educational supplies that stimulate the development of fine motor skills, large motor skills, conceptual development, and creativity.

To help with the costs of extra curricular activities, we collect Glen's Save & Share slips.
